FOR A DATING SITE BUILT FOR EXACTLY ONE PERSON

Amelia Larson

APPLICANT / FOUNDER / UNICORN

The apps are broken, and the right DoorDash driver still hasn't shown up at my door. I've tipped generously. I've left the porch light on. Nothing.

So I'm doing what I always do when the market fails me: building it myself. Below is the only profile it will ever list.

01 · THE APPLICANT

AGE	35. Not yet eligible for assisted living. I'd know. I place people there for a living.
STATUS	Never married. No kids. 🦄 Nothing's wrong with me. I was just busy building two companies.
CREDENTIALS	Master's in gerontology, dementia certified. I will never forget your birthday. Professionally.
OCCUPATION	Professional business dreamer. One startup idea per appetizer. Three by dessert.

02 · AMENITIES, INCLUDED

SKIING	First chair. I will not be waiting at the bottom.
MTN BIKING	Bruises are a personality trait.
TRAVEL	More passport stamps than the apps have given me decent matches.
FOOD	Ordering is a team sport. We're sharing. Don't fight it.
MUSIC	I'll find the song before it's everywhere. You will hear about it.
HIKE / LIFT	The 6 a.m. class. You don't have to come. (You should come.)

03 · GOLF
